logic!

In my personal opinion this quotation means that postponing is useless and it is just time-wasting activity.

For me in procrastination there is nothing good, <sup>wo</sup> and I have two main reasons for this. Firstly, if you can do your needed ~~activities~~ things right now, you <sup>lex</sup> definitely should do this, because hesitations could <sup>Sp</sup> lead to the growth of anxiety, which is really bad. Secondly, instead of being idle you can be productive and do not lose your time, as endless avoidance of ~~easy~~ tasks could last forever. <sup>Sp</sup>

For instance, some years ago I loved to postpone all the things which I ~~de~~ need to do, and after <sup>Gr Pen</sup> this I could not live properly and enjoy everyday life, <sup>Gr Sp</sup> as I stopped to do <sup>ing</sup> this I feel better.

In conclusion, this quotation is very accurate, the author's point of view illustrates nowadays' problem, that many people love to follow. This issue of wasting-time is quite common, but can be very hard for your mental health, so all people should follow <sup>what advice?</sup> advice and do everything at time. Time is really <sup>Gr</sup> crucial for everyone, and this generation should not lose it or postpone <sup>what</sup> <sup>186w lex</sup>

I have to explain how I understand the Charles Dickens's phrase "Procrastination is the thief of time, collar him", but I think that all of us understands this phrase ~~the~~ the same as the others. Because the point of author is understandable if you have a situation when you realise that postpone your work is a bad idea!

All of us have too short life about 60 years, and I think, that spending time to empty is not the best idea. I think we must explore the new every day and don't hesitate instead of a choose between do something or not. If you don't try something you will think about it all your life and complains that you didn't tryed it.

For example, I write <sup>chemistry</sup> olympiads. It ~~is~~ takes a lot of my time, because chemistry is not so easy science. But sometimes i feel so tired of learning and sitting with books at home, when my friends are walking and have fun. So I postpone my tasks for tomorrow and walk with my friend. But it can repeats so much times, that I don't do the tasks or learn something before the olympiad! And after I have the results of olympiade I feel upset of it. But it is only my problem. Because I avoidance my tasks and was idle. This example shows that time-wasting ~~is~~ can ruin your results in anything.

In conclusion, I want to say the easy point of view: Do everything in time, it is important! If you <sup>will</sup> postpone all of your work, you will postpone all your life.

Writing

It goes without saying that procrastination is a part of our lives. We often postpone our work to another day and it can be really or fatal for us.

I reckon that procrastination is the or time-wasting. People idle and do nothing. I think that because ? people don't do anything useful while procrastinating. Also, fun it may be dangerous because avoidance of the work can become a habitat. People hex don't think much about it, but I think that it is very important issue of all the times.

As for me, I often hesitate to do or not to do something. logic I will give an example from my life. My brother likes to swim, but doesn't like swimming fun lessons. He has some good qualities for swimming, but he always skips the lessons. fun So then he just don't go to swimming, or though he can become a good swimmer.

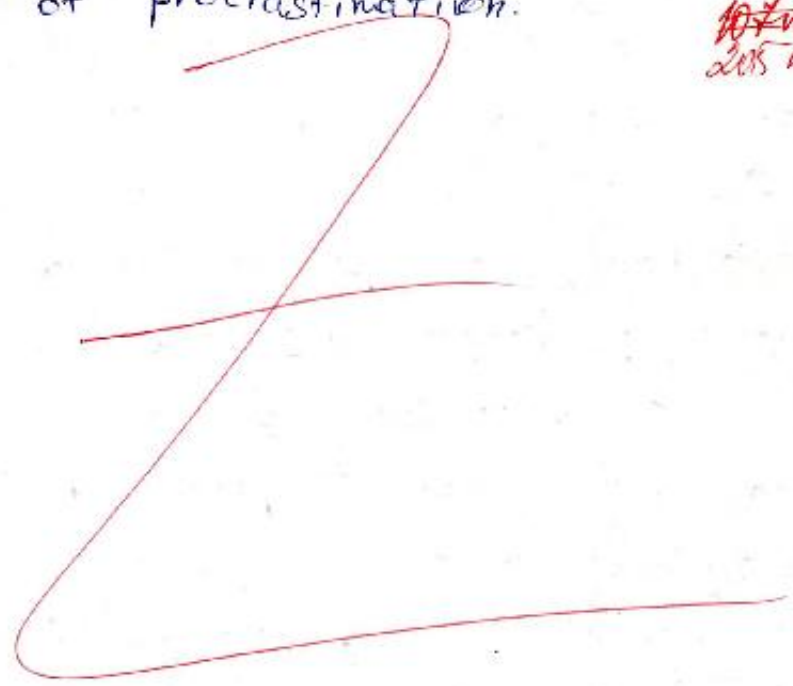

Another example I also give from my life. wo My friends always don't do homework, so then they write a test to a bad mark. They or always postpone the homework to another day or and that's it. or

How Heaven

In conclusion, I want to say that procrastination is a really bad thing. Often people with good qualities can break their dreams about the best future because of procrastination.

возмущение

Charles Dickens said: "Procrastination is the thief of time, collar him". That means, that this phenomenon is just a time-wasting activity. If you fall into this condition for a long time, you will postpone all your deals and just be lazy and unproductive. Of course, it is very bad for your life as it becomes idle and pointless. Due to this fact, people should control it because it <sup>logic what?</sup> develops quickly and can be invisible. I agree with the author. Sometimes in my life I have such episodes and it is harmful for me. For example, rarely but I can decide <sup>not</sup> to do my homework and then I get bad marks. It is not the main problem, it is worse than I miss the chance to <sup>learn</sup> ~~know~~ something new. Also, because of procrastination you don't enjoy all abilities given to you by ~~the~~ <sup>life</sup>. You content only with basic needs. As the example I can illustrate the book "Obtomer". In the story the main character Obtomer procrastinate all his life. He doesn't have hobbies, deals and point of life. So he is suffered but can't do nothing because this lifestyle is too deep. In the end he dies and doesn't left anything suffer him. The second example is connected with my life. When I feel procrastination I don't feel that I am alive person. Life is just coming past me.

In conclusion, I believe that people all over the world will have the opportunity of avoidance this fact. Without any hint to hesitate this threat should be forgotten as a really danger in the modern world.

Procrastination is the thief of time.

This phrase is said by Charles Dickens and I'm fruly agree with it. The worst thing Gr in life you can do is waste your time.

You mustn't waste your time on stupid things and postpone everything on tomorrow. Gr logic This things are much worse than having bad Gr habits. Procrastination is making your life worse.

In time that you're wasting you could do a lot of things like learn <sup>the</sup> new language, do your homework, Gr spend time with your family.

The example of procrastination is me.

When a school started we had a lot of tasks to do at home, but I was idle, I was putting all the Pen tasks on the weekends instead of doing them on Gr time. I was in an avoidance <sup>the</sup> position but Gr now I'm a better person and do everything on time. I'm not hesitating.

At the end I want to say that procrastination is time-wasting. Be a better person, get ride of it. Gr

In our world, lots of people think that the most valuable resource <sup>Sp</sup> is time. You only lose it until you're dead - that's what they think. Maybe Charles Dickens thought the same <sup>1 abs</sup>. Procrastination is the thief of time, collar man - it means that there's nothing more time-wasting + than procrastination. Everything you do gives you experience and knowledge; and only procrastination gives you nothing. I fully support + author's opinion. Procrastination <sup>Gr</sup> only leads you to idle + life without purpose. Once you started + giving yourself a little breaks, from work, it'll be so <sup>Gr</sup> hard not to fall in procrastination. <sup>adv</sup> I'll illustrate my <sup>Gr</sup> statement, based on my personal experience. Back in <sup>Pen</sup> 2023, I had a school project, which I had to finish <sup>lex</sup> before May. I knew it in September. And I postponed it <sup>Gr</sup> the whole year, so I didn't finish it. So, avoidance and procrastination led me to bad grades. Another example we can find in classical Russian <sup>lex</sup> literature. In "Oblomov" by Ivan Goncharov, Main <sup>wo</sup> hero of a story, Oblomov, had a whole life full of procrastination. He didn't have a job, his sight <sup>Gr</sup> only ? was lying on a couch and dreaming. Even though he <sup>Gr</sup> hesitated and tried to live a normal life, in the end he goes <sup>Gr</sup> back to procrastination and dies because of a heart attack. <sup>Sp</sup> So I think Charles Dickens's quote will be useful <sup>are</sup> forever since laziness and procrastination <sup>are</sup> parts of human's behaviour.

I am the same. Sometimes I procrastinate and ~~don't~~ + postpone my homework for the last time ~~or~~ <sup>lex</sup> don't do ~~it~~ at all. Then I feel so nervous. One day I didn't want to ~~prepare~~ for my exam. ✓ Next day <sup>Gr</sup> I wasn't confident <sup>and I hesitate+</sup> ~~with~~ my skills and I didn't pass <sup>Gr</sup> my exam. This was so dissapointing. I think procrastination have a lot of reasons such as avoidance ✓ problems <sup>Gr</sup> and fear of difficult and terrnifying thing. People ~~often~~ are idle + when they don't want to do and complete some thing. People <sup>are</sup> afraid of difficulties. <sup>15.2w</sup> <sup>Gr</sup>

Writing have understood Gr Безусловно?
I understand that Dickens wanted to convey to us that procrastination is really dangerous thing, which can take over us and bring tragedy to our life. We should get under the control that feeling when you do not want to do something now. As for me, I think that procrastination is cruel thing ~~that~~ which firstly seems harmless, but then plays bad joke with you. It is also cruel, because you postpone your work and then the moment of the truth sharply gets you. You are not ready because of idle life and avoidance of problems would not help you in that situation. I have had lots of similar situations in my life. Once I had a school project, that was really hard to do. I hesitated of doing such a difficult work and postponed it for later. It was really confusing when I ~~was~~ have not done my work and was not ready. Also, I had a lot of time-wasting games, which were distracting me from doing work that I needed.

In conclusion, I want to say that procrastination is really dangerous, but you can control it yourselves. You should limit ~~such as~~ feelings and it ~~really~~ help you to do everything on time. Time is money. do it

Writing

Hello, here's my review to the your new game Cretely Squad! I was so happy to see the new game in the shop and started to play it. This is such a cool game! At first, I'll tell you about characters. Alice, Art and other ~~was~~ really cool. They were very sociable <sup>at</sup> the first moments, but when you start play with monsters and angels they <sup>are</sup> really cool. Some romantic lines and drama <sup>are</sup> coming to you with comedy and usually dialogues. In the first <sup>the</sup> chapters of game there is school life, but in the second part <sup>the</sup> starts play with hell. A lot of monsters come from hell and we with others start to fight with monsters. Our aim - kill King of hell and all evil Cerber. I can recommend this game to someone who love good plot, fighting and like stories about heroes!

All good to you and bye!

Writing

Recently I <sup>have</sup> tried playing Detroit, "become a human". It is quite interesting. My favorite character is Connor. I really like his personality and <sup>a?</sup> the actor who played him for the game did really well. The plot was nice but I didn't watch it all. Logically the place ~~where~~ <sup>where</sup> actions take place is Detroit. I think they showed the atmosphere of the town is perfect for the game. Such a ~~serious~~ serious and lost place I actually think this game is not for everyone. If you like interactive movies that game may catch your ~~any~~ eye. I think it is worth <sup>y</sup> trying it out.

You can try playing it on your computer or playstation, if you have one. Also the game has many interesting and exciting action since and questions to think about.

Writing

The game, that I <sup>have</sup> recently played is "PAPERS PLEASE!". The main character is a man, who checks the documents on the border of <sup>a</sup> country. The plot is about a country. In this ~~can~~ country there <sup>are</sup> a lot of crimes, committed by foreigners. ~~The country name~~ And you should stop the crimes by checking fake documents. The country name is Arstok<sup>ts</sup>ka. Also you should make money for your family. If your family dies, you <sup>will</sup> be fired from your job. I would recommend this game for people who love strategy games, because you should think about lots of factors to make successful ~~work~~. That is <sup>a</sup> really hard game for beginners. So I would advice you to play easier games before you will play ~~x~~ this. So, ~~here you~~ good luck, guys.

Wow, I can't go to your birthday, sonny,
But this is not a problem, yes?

Of course, you can stay at home, but are you sure? It's your party, my dear friend!
If you want to have a party - that's great.

My last birthday... I don't remember it,
Well, I remember my 10th birthday, it was wonderfull! We were at Moscow and go to the „The island of wonders”, I love this year.

Birthday traditions? We don't have it.
I want to live at Moscow in this year and that's a real!

Writing

Procrastination is the thief of time, collar him.
This statement of Charles Dickens tells us how important time is. Time is the most valuable thing for us and we can not buy it. The author <sup>Sp</sup> says that it is very important for everyone to try not to waste time.

As for me, I ~~am~~ fully agree with <sup>Gr</sup> author's <sup>Gr</sup> point of view. When a person always postpones his planes and duties and does not do anything, <sup>Sp</sup> he just wastes his time. Firstly, doing nothing useful gives nothing to our mental improvement. Secondly, a person who does <sup>all</sup> his work in time feels happy.

The bright example of procrastination is described <sup>in the</sup> novel by Goncharov called "Oblokov".

Oblokov is a person who always hesitates about <sup>everything</sup> and postpones all his plans. He also avoids responsibilities and feels sad about it. ?

To conclude, I would like to say that time-wasting activity is <sup>very</sup> bad. That is why we should do everything we want now and not to hesitate because the best time is now. <sup>Gr</sup>

Charles Dickens said, "Procrastination is the thief of time, call on him" That means that when you are procrastinating, you lose a lot of opportunities and also your time for recreational and time-wasting activities. I can prove it by giving reasons in its support.

Actually, some times I can be lazy and idle, I can find myself just lying on the bed and doing nothing. My laziness can make things worse than they were. Once I postponed doing my biology homework so I had to do it all in the last day. That shows that avoidance of work can make it all harder.

✓ Some situation happened with my friend Max. He can be so lazy that it can be annoying. And once, he had his trip to Moscow, in Isbekia and he got lost. He was hesitating to ask someone for help so he spent four hours looking for the way until he asked for help. So ~~that~~ do not be like Max and never hesitate, because it can make ~~out~~ everything more difficult.

As a conclusion, I can say that Charles Dickens was right. So do not procrastinate and work hard.

Writing

I don't usually play games, but I'd like to recommend you this quite popular game.

It's a game named "Tom".

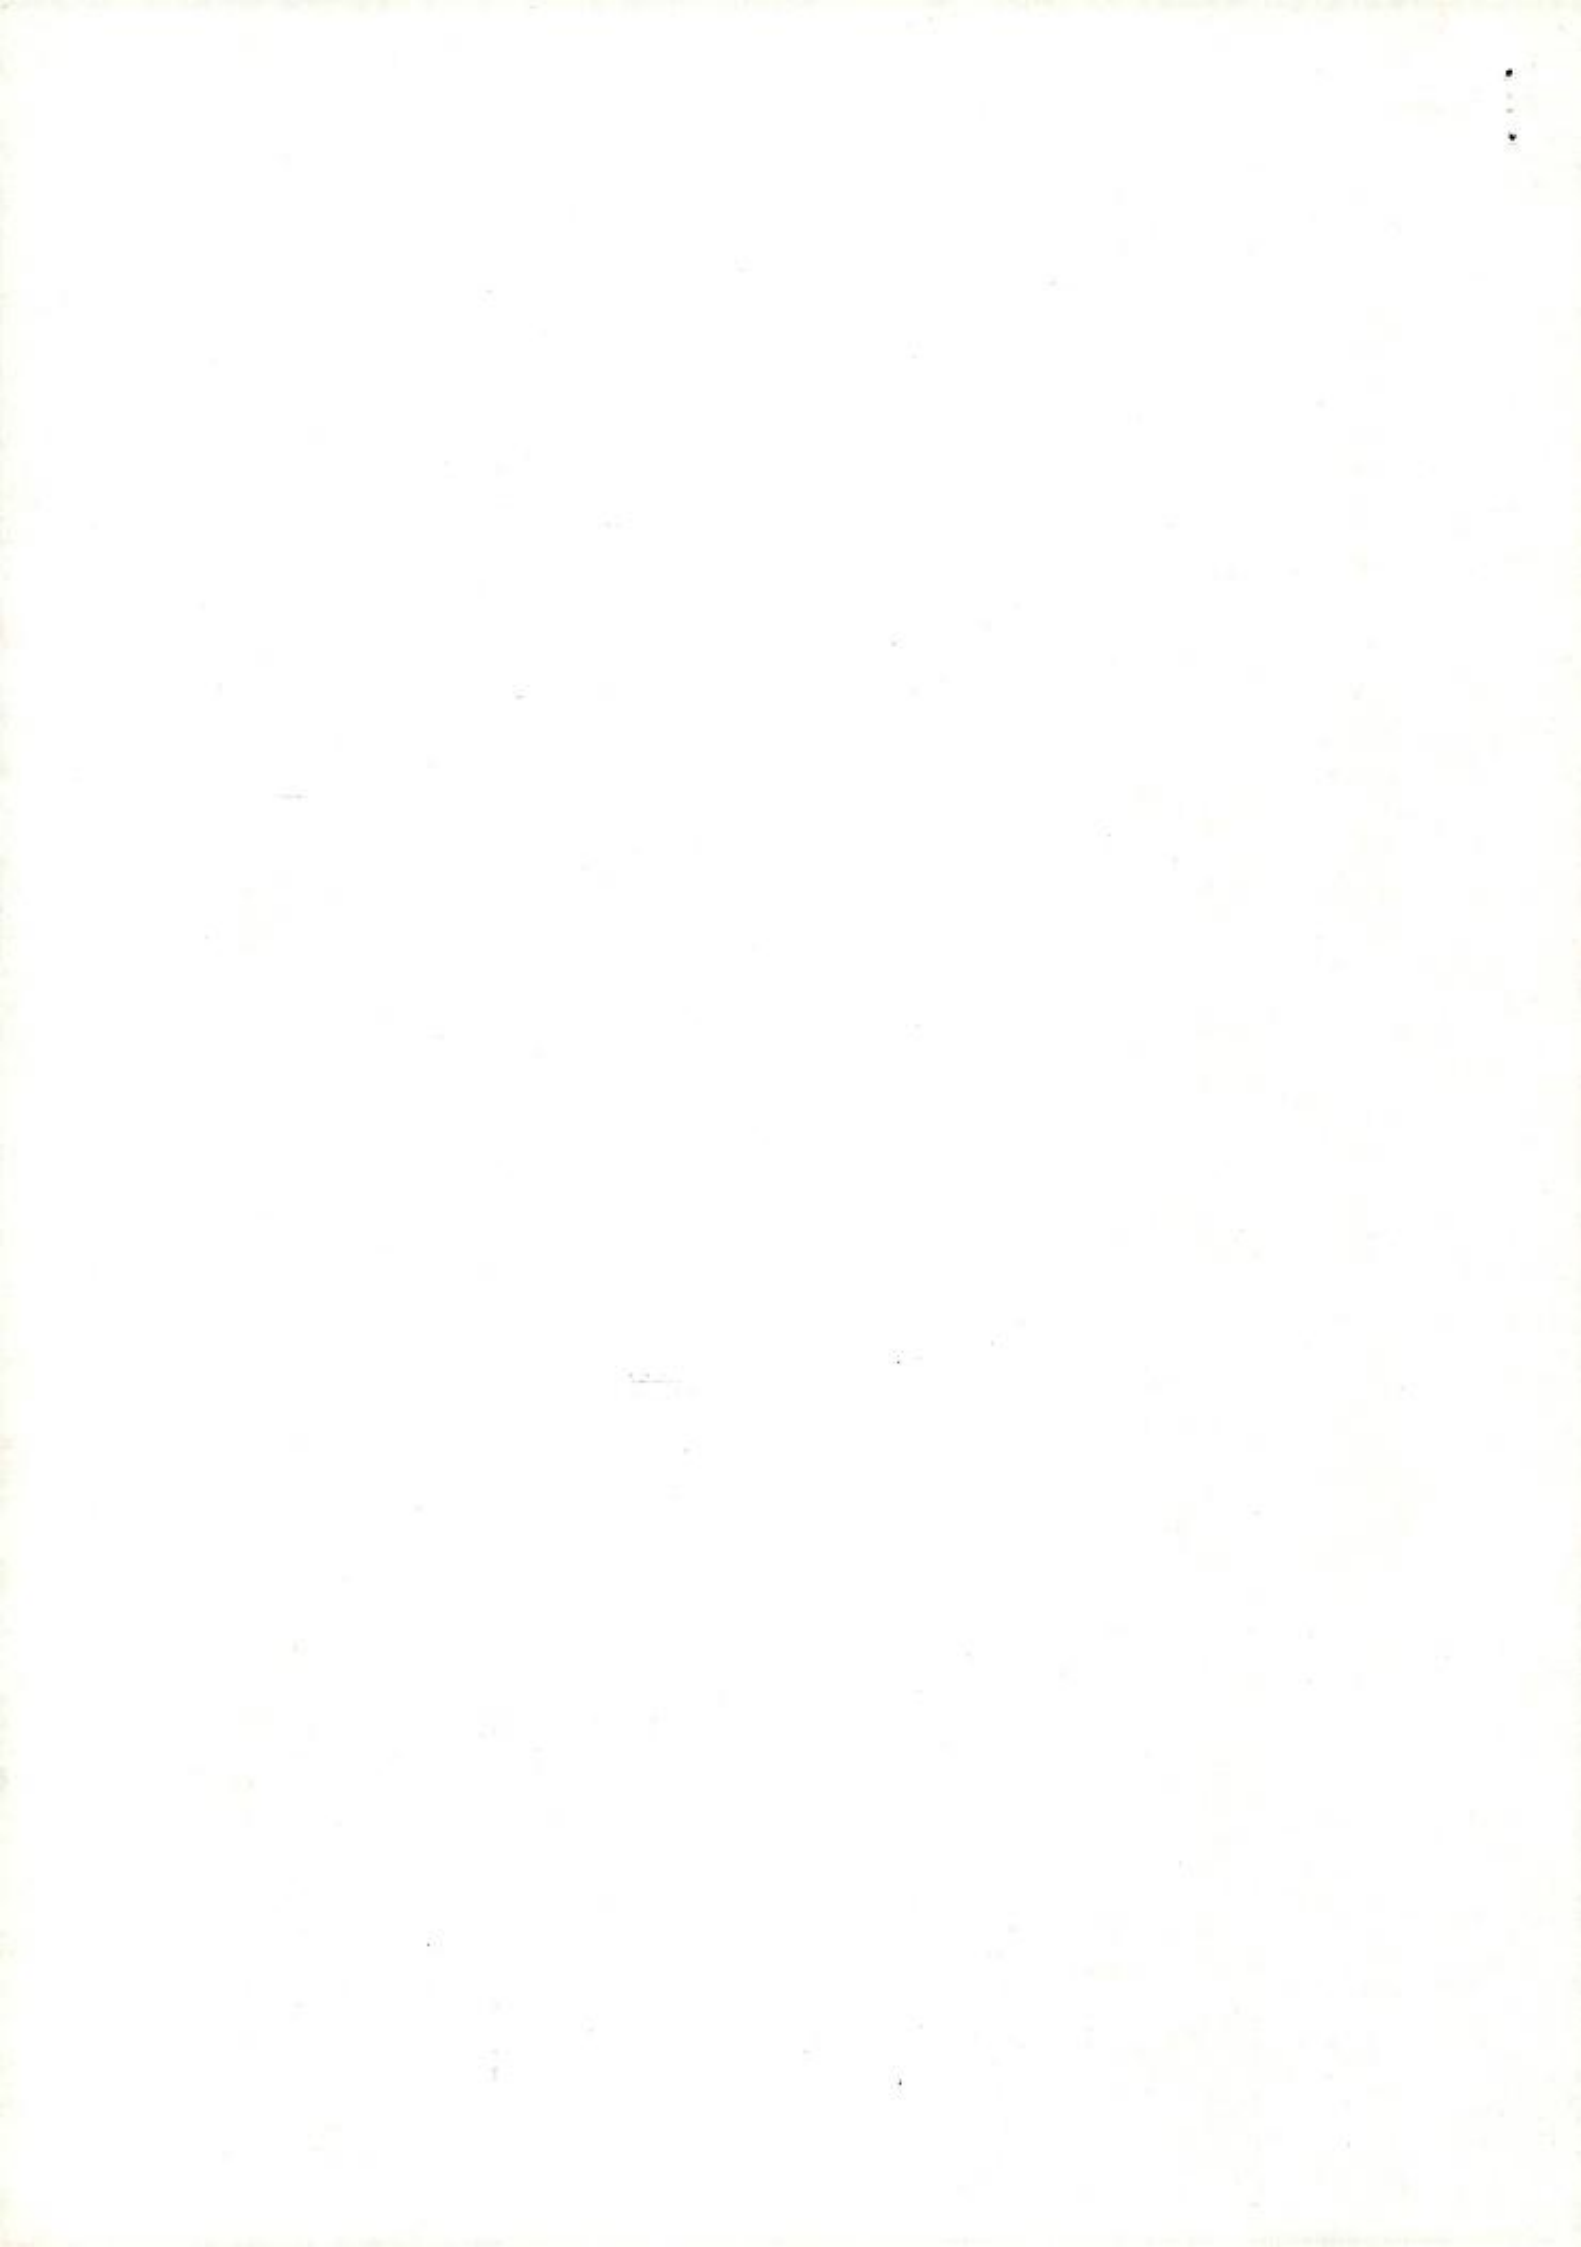

In this game there's only one character - Tom. You need to take care of him like he's your pet. You need to feed him, shower him, play with him, dress him and something like this.

In this game you can also play a lot of mini games to make money, which you can use to buy things like food, clothes, his appearance, features and a lot of more. This all happens in your house, where Tom and you live. You can also decorate your house, buy things like furniture with the same money.

I really recommend<sup>m</sup> this game because it's really enjoyable and fun, and you can play it to relax or increase your mood. It's really easy and at the same time really interesting, so you should definitely download<sup>n</sup> it! I promise you won't get disappointed.

Writing

As Charles Dickens said: "Procrastination is the thief of time, collar him." Actually, procrastination is a serious problem that many people suffer from. The point is that being disturbed by minor tasks people postpone work that really matters, until the burning deadline. As the result, they may start to feel ~~anxious~~ unproductive and snowed under. lex

Nowadays procrastination appears to be a wide-spread issue. With the technological progress and popularisation of the social media a phenomena "clip-thinking" has appeared. People, especially teenagers, develop addiction to their devices and often lead a time-wasting life just scrolling the news and short videos without even noticing it. It affects their memory, shortens concentration span and leads to avoidance of long-term activities as well. It becomes difficult ~~to~~ for people to start a new project as it seems too ~~&~~ complicated, ~~for them~~ they ~~can~~ are likely to hesitate and, as the result, dissipate attention on small tasks, postponing work that is to be done. Eventually, procrastination ~~that causes anxiety and stress~~ can even ~~be~~ become a reason of depression and other mental diseases.

To prove my opinion, I would refer to "Oblomov" by Ivan Goncharov. The main character of this novel - Ilya Oblomov leads an idle life. He <sup>does</sup> not only ~~rejects the necessity of being active and~~ refuses to make any efforts but also denies the idea of action itself. In my opinion, such lifestyle is not appealing at all. However, I used to suffer from a similar problem. I was stressed and anxious all the time until I took up sport and dived in studying.

In conclusion, ~~without~~ procrastination, without exaggeration, appears to be a serious problem. It is to be tackled in order to have a full ~~well-fledged~~ life.

Writing

One great writer Charles Dickens said: "Procrastination is the thief of time, collar him." He meant<sup>s</sup> that if you postpone your goals and Cr choose some time-wasting activities, you will live a boring and idle life. He encourages us to eradicate procrastination to save our time.

I totally agree with<sup>v</sup> quotation, I'm convinced that Cr Dickens achieved success in his life not because of procrastination, but hard work. Many lazy people Sp don't follow their goals because of laziness, but Person Cr when they stopped avoidance of work they succeeded.

For example, my best friend used to procrastinate constantly and then he didn't passed his exam. When Cr he "collared" his laziness, he became the best in Pen his university group. I had a similar experience. I had a goal to read 4 four books in a month month Cr but I was hesitating to start, so I lost much time. When I decided to start the task, it was too late, but I managed to read everything.

In To sum up, I have to say, that if you won't Cr keep your laziness in collar you won't achieve your goals. You have to start working hard to live a successful life. Never give up on your dreams, you can always start living a new life without the thief - procrastination.
